RJC CERTIFIES JEWELLERY MANUFACTURER, SUN SOURCE

LONDON - RJC announced today that Sun Diamond Inc. trading as Sun Source, has achieved Certification against the 2013 Code of Practices (COP) at its import and wholesale office in New York, USA.

"It is a pleasure to announce Sun Source has been certified against the 2013 COP. The provisions under the 2013 COP address important issues for our Members and their supply chain. We are delighted to see Members achieving Certification against the standard and warmly congratulate Sun Source," says Andrew Bone, RJC's Executive Director.

The successful verification assessment was led by Gennie Sanchez from SGS United Kingdom Limited, one of the independent third-party auditing firms accredited by the RJC.

"Sun Source is proud to receive RJC Certification. Our company is committed to responsible sourcing and to upholding ethical business practices. We are pleased to join other RJC Members in ensuring that responsible practices are a guiding tenet of our industry," says Ed Yakubovich, President of Sun Source.

About RJC

The Responsible Jewellery Council is an international not-for-profit standards and certification organisation. It has more than 700 Member companies that span the jewellery supply chain from mine to retail. RJC Members commit to and are independently audited against the RJC Code of Practices – an international standard on responsible business practices for diamonds, gold and platinum group metals. The Code of Practices addresses human rights, labour rights, environmental impact, mining practices, product disclosure and many more important topics in the jewellery supply chain. RJC also works with multi-stakeholder initiatives on responsible sourcing and supply chain due diligence. The RJC's Chain-of-Custody Certification for precious metals supports these initiatives and can be used as a tool to deliver broader Member and stakeholder benefit.

The RJC is a Full Member of the ISEAL Alliance – the global association for sustainability standards. For more information on RJC Members, Certification, and Standards please visit www.responsiblejewellery.com
